2 | Included Benefits by Enrollment Level

Upon verified payment and onboarding, each new enrolling participant receives access to an affiliate back office and the Company-managed credit-distribution network at SeeItCookIt.com and approved individual sites. Wholesale Affiliates receive an initial 3,500 credits and one branded Company-managed website or landing page, unless a signed order states otherwise. Super Wholesalers and Elite Super Wholesalers receive their selected base and documented bonus credit allocations, a Company-managed branded page, and the ability to allocate available credits to approved Wholesale Affiliates, subject to Company controls. All tiers may distribute eligible credits through their own approved page and through the central hub. Website/domain: _____. Websites and software remain Company-managed assets; no ownership of Company technology is transferred.

3 | How Credits Work

Credits are promotional usage units issued free to eligible See It. Cook It. app users. Company maintains one central ledger for purchased credits, bonus credits, transfers to wholesalers, allocations through individual sites and the SeeItCookIt.com hub, user redemptions, reversals and remaining balances. Super Wholesalers and Elite Super Wholesalers may transfer credits from their available balance to approved Wholesale Affiliates through Company systems; transferred credits are deducted from the sender's balance and recorded against the receiving wholesaler's account, without creating duplicate credits. Credits are not cash, are not redeemable for cash, and do not guarantee subscribers or sales. Eligibility, redemption limits, fraud controls, expiration (if any), and treatment of unused credits are governed by published program rules and applicable law.

4 | User Attribution and Affiliate Dashboard

Users who obtain credits through Affiliate's assigned page or through an allocation attributed to Affiliate in the central hub will be associated with Affiliate in the Company's tracking system, subject to identity matching, fraud checks, duplicate-account rules, privacy law, and the attribution policy disclosed in the back office. Company will provide reporting of allocated/distributed credits, eligible attributed users, qualifying revenue, adjustments, and commissions. The dashboard may show limited user information; Affiliate may use personal information only as authorized by Company and applicable privacy requirements.

5 | Commission Categories, Attribution & Payout Terms

A. USER REVENUE: Each eligible participant may receive 50% of the qualifying revenue base from properly attributed end users, subject to the selection below and program adjustments. This user-revenue commission is separate from the wholesale-credit-sales commission.

50% of gross receipts actually collected (excluding taxes and refunds)
50% of net receipts after store/payment fees, taxes, refunds and chargebacks
Other written definition (attach schedule): _____

Payout frequency: _____ Minimum payout: _____
Payout method: Amazon credit Apple in-store credit Direct deposit Money order

B. WHOLESALE CREDIT SALES: Super Wholesalers and Elite Super Wholesalers are eligible for a 25% commission on qualifying, actually collected sales of credit packages to Wholesale Affiliates that are properly referred or attributed to them, as recorded by Company. The 25% is calculated on: gross collected receipts excluding taxes/refunds net collected receipts after payment fees/refunds other: _____. Mere transfers of already purchased credits, bonus-credit grants, and free distributions do not themselves generate a 25% sales commission. Credit-sale commissions require a paid qualifying purchase; no double commission is payable on the same sale unless Company expressly approves it in writing. Refunds, chargebacks, fraud and taxes may adjust commissions. No earnings are guaranteed. Commission policies may change prospectively under Section 10.

6 | Website Setup and Program Operation

Company targets standard website/account setup within 90 days after receipt of required onboarding materials, without guaranteeing traffic or income. Company may use shared templates, update app features, credit eligibility and operational processes, and manage the central credit pool. Material changes to already purchased credits will be handled under applicable law and the written purchase terms. Bonus allocations and add-on purchases must be recorded in the account ledger and confirmed in writing.

7 | Affiliate Marketing and Conduct

Affiliate may promote the program using approved materials and truthful claims. Affiliate will not promise guaranteed income, claim that Amazon, Apple, or Google endorses the program, misrepresent affiliate status as company ownership, spam consumers, or misuse user information. Affiliate is responsible for its own advertising expenses and compliance with advertising, privacy, email, SMS, and other applicable laws. Company owns the See It. Cook It. app, brands, software, and core systems; Affiliate receives a limited, revocable permission to use approved program assets while in good standing.

8 | Refunds, Cancellation and Termination

Enrollment and credit purchases are nonrefundable after 3 days, except where applicable law requires otherwise. Either party may terminate for material breach with notice and a reasonable cure period, except for fraud, unlawful conduct or serious security violations. Access to Company assets may end upon termination. Earned, undisputed commissions remain payable under applicable terms. Treatment of unused purchased and bonus credits upon termination is subject to the applicable program terms and law.

9 | Risk, No Guarantees and Independent Status

Affiliate understands this is an early-stage business program. Results depend on customer adoption and actual purchases. The Company does not guarantee any number of users, subscribers, earnings, investment returns, or a future business valuation. Affiliate acts as an independent business participant, not an employee, partner in a legal partnership, agent with authority to bind Company, or equity owner. Affiliate is responsible for applicable taxes on its compensation.

10 | Standard Agreement Terms

This Agreement and any signed schedules are the entire agreement for this affiliate enrollment and supersede inconsistent promotional statements. Company may update program policies, commission percentages, qualifying revenue definitions, payout schedules, attribution rules, and payment methods in its discretion from time to time, including with immediate effect where permitted by applicable law, without providing individual advance notice. Updated terms may be made available through the affiliate dashboard or program website. Changes apply prospectively to qualifying activity occurring on or after their effective date and do not reduce commissions already earned under the terms then in effect. Continued participation after an update constitutes acceptance to the extent permitted by law; an Affiliate who does not accept an update may discontinue participation. Changes to the enrollment benefits already delivered require written agreement of both parties. Notices, where legally required, may be delivered to the email addresses designated by the parties. If a provision is unenforceable, the remainder continues to the extent lawful. Electronic signatures and counterparts are permitted where legally valid.

11 | Add-on Credit Purchases & Order Record

This Agreement also governs additional credit purchases by an existing participant when documented below or in an attached, Company-confirmed order. Each purchase is added to the central ledger. It does not automatically change the participant's tier, user-revenue commission, or other rights. Credits may be used through the central hub, the participant's page, or approved wholesale transfers according to the selected tier.
